A MAGNETIC JOKE.—A few days since, says the Corsaire of Paris, a young girl took passage in one of the cars of the Versailles railroad for Paris. She was there met by a young gentleman who entered into a social chat with her upon magnetism, during which the young girl remarked that she was very easily put to sleep. The gentlemen on entering the car seated himself in face of the girl and soon, without any passes, had the satisfaction of beholding the miss asleep. On arriving at Paris, the magnetiser was the first to leave the car; the girl slept on. "Come mademoiselle," said the conductor, "the cars have arrived at their destination." Silence was the only response. "Mademoiselle, you must now leave the cars!" The girl slept on as soundly as ever. "Mademoiselle," shouted the excited officer; then he exclaimed: "Mon Dieu! she has fainted!" and he transported her to a hall. There, nothing could arouse her from her mysterious state, for no one present was able to withdraw the fluid with which she was surcharged.

It is said that the girl is still at the depot in a Rip Van Winkle state of somnolency, awaiting the arrival of a magnetiser to unmagnetize her, and that the company had sent for a gallant chevalier to awaken the belle from her unnatural sleep.

SOMETHING IN A NAME.—Attention has sometimes been called to the appropriateness of the names of our military leaders.—Taylor has had an infinite variety of popular allusions to the manner in which he has sewed up the Mexican nation. Scott has fully proved his claims to the application of Winfield. Worth might have taken his name from his character and his deeds.—Pierce has gone through the enemy-like a streak of lightning, while the heavy blows of the Smith have rung loud and clear on the Mexican anvil. Wool, they say, has wooed out foes, and Twigg twiggled them to some purpose. Pillow invited many a Mexican to his last slumber. Butler tapped the shrine of Mexican barrels at Monterey, while Hunter started the game out of Alvarado, and gave his commander no chance to be in at the death. The Indiana General showed Santa Anna that there was no "turning" in that Lane. Some of our officers have proved even better than their names. Childs showed at Puebla that he was no baby, and Bragg proved himself more than a boaster at Buena Vista.

A PEACEABLE COMMUNITY.—The Court of Common Pleas, for the county of Barnstable, Mass., held its annual session lately. It is said that the Judges took their seats; the chaplain prayed; the full compliment of grand and petit jurors, a melodious crier and a bar full of lawyers qualified to maintain either side of any cause—yet after all not a single case criminal, or civil, was found for the jurors. In six months not two men could be got to go to law with each other, and nobody had committed a crime that required a verdict of guilty or not guilty. The county is one of the most populous in that State—but the principles planted by the pilgrims flourish there spontaneously.

PAGANINI.—With a weak organization, Paganini was one of the most forcible examples of the almost superhuman strength which results from the exaltation of mind produced by genius. When he seized the violin, it seemed that a star descended on him, and inspired him with fire from heaven. He instantly lost his weakness—a new existence opened to him; he was another creature; and during the musical action, his strength was more than quintupled.—After having performed a concerto, his symptoms were those of a man under epilepsy; his livid and cold skin was covered with a profuse perspiration; his pulse was scarcely to be felt; and when questioned on any subject he answered only in monosyllables. The night after his concert he never slept, and continued in a state of agitation, which sometimes lasted for two or three days.

Of one hundred and twenty emperors of China who are enumerated in their annals fifty-four died, thirty one were killed, thirteen dethroned, and ten abdicated.

The second lecture before the Mechanics' Association will be delivered this evening, at Armory Hall, at 7 o'clock, by the Rev. R. C. Waterston, of Boston. His subject is the "Life and Character of Washington Allston," and is said to be most interesting and instructive. It is a noble theme, and ought to call forth the strongest powers of the gifted lecturer. Mr. Allston was one of our first painters, and his reputation as a poet ranks high in our country's literature. He passed several years of his life in Europe, and was the intimate friend of the great philosophic poet, Coleridge. Some of his best pieces were first published among that gentleman's "Sabbath Leaves," a work which created no little sensation, and found a host of warm friends, when it first appeared. Mr. Waterston himself is a poet of no common distinction, and having been the intimate friend of Allston, for many years, we shall be very much disappointed if he does not deliver a lecture replete with faithful information and sparkling with jewel thoughts of the perfect east.

CASE OF COMMON PLACES.—On Tuesday afternoon the case of Thomas Estes vs Peter Cook, Tresspass on the case, for Slanders words spoken, was commenced. The action grew out of the Plaintiffs having been a witness against the Defendant in a trial which was tried at the Stone Bridge, in Tiverton, in January last, after which the Defendant charged the Plaintiff with having sworn falsely at that time. It was not completed until yesterday morning.

H. N. Cranston, & Son for Plaintiff.—Pearce & Sheffield for Defendant.

The Jury, after being out over three hours, came into Court and stated that they were unable to agree on a Verdict; they were again sent out but returned soon after, and being still unable to agree, the papers were taken from them. The Jury stood eleven for awarding damages, and one undecided as to the amount.

Nichols Hassard vs Henry B. Hodges.—This was an action on the case for the recovery of damages sustained by the Plaintiff in consequence of his horse having been injured during the night-time, in the Defendant's stable, where he was put up, at the Stone Bridge House in Tiverton, so that he died, or had to be shot. Pearce & Turner for Plaintiff. Blake & Sheffield for Defendant.

The case was not given to the Jury until a late hour, and we shall announce the verdict tomorrow.

THE LATE SILAS WRIGHT.—The following is a description of Mr. Plunkett's design for a monument to the late Silas Wright. It consists of a pedestal on which rests a sarcophagus, and the sarcophagus in turn supports a pillar, on which stands the statue of Governor Wright. On the base, beside the sarcophagus, stand allegorical figures of justice and liberty. The height of the monument is to be about 30 feet, and the column is about 28 inches in diameter. The design has the recommendation of simplicity, and a monument constructed according to it would, it strikes us, be an impressive one.

GRAND FLOOD IN THE OHIO.—The Ohio river and its tributaries has risen to an unusual height. At Cincinnati the water is only eight feet lower than it reached in the great freshet of 1832. It has caused immense damage throughout the country. Heavy damages to the Pennsylvania canal are reported.

FREMONT COURT MARTIAL.—The examination of Commodore Stockton has been closed, and with that ceases Mr. Wise's agency in the matter, as the Commander's counsel. The trial is about to end. How it will end no one can say.

MR. WALKER.—A Washington letter dated Monday says the secretary is recovering, but no one is allowed to see him.

PEN-ITIMORS.—In the London Times, a week or two ago, a gentleman inserted an apology (in an advertisement) for passing a friend in the street without speaking.

Appleton & Co. have just published a most beautiful edition of the writings of Fitz-Greene Halleck, which should be in the library of every lover of genuine poetry. This book is got up in a style of elegance, worthy of its contents, and highly creditable to the art. The works of Bryant, Longfellow, Willis and Halleck have now been published in the same rich and magnificent form, and make a beautiful Gift-book for the approaching holidays; we should prefer to present either of the above works to a young lady, rather than any of the Annals which are out.

We presume that this is the edition of the Poet's works which posterity will receive, as his quota of the literature of the present age; it is now many years since Halleck wrote anything, and from a letter now before us, written in 1839, we make the following extract, in which the Poet clearly settles the question as to whether the public may expect anything more from him:—"I have long since thrown aside my pen as a versifier, and fear that I shall never again find time to resume it."

Halleck is one of the few who have elevated the character of our literature to an honorable national standard. It is not very many years since the English Reviews boasted that America had no great poets, none whose souls were inspired by that divinus inspirator which alone can produce a lofty and etherealized poem; a triumphant refutation, however, has been given to this small and egotistical charge, by the authors whom we have named, as well as many others whose productions are perfectly familiar to our readers.

Halleck was born in Guilford, Connecticut, and removed to the city of New York, when he was eighteen years of age, where he has since resided; he early evinced a taste for poetry, and wrote verses when quite a child. Immediately after removing to the city, he became intimate with the late Joseph Rodman Drake, the author of the "Culprit Fay," a man of brilliant wit and delicate fancy, and remained so until the death of the latter, which occurred a few years after this time. They commenced their poetical career in the columns of the New York Evening Post, under the signatures of "Croaker" and "Croaker & Co." Under these names, Halleck wrote his glorious martial lyric, "Marco Bozzaris," and Drake his soul stirring "American Flag," two poems which created much excitement, and their authorship was ascribed, at different times, to various literary gentlemen, while the real authors proved, for a long time, unsuspected. But such genius could not remain incognito many years, and the youthful hands were finally discovered. Drake died soon after, at the early age of twenty-five, and his friend Halleck wrote the following beautiful poem on the occasion, which was honorable in its design and truthful in its execution:—

Green be the turf above thee,
Friend of my better days!
None knew thee but to love thee,
None named thee but to praise.

Tears fell, when thou wert dying,
From eyes unused to weep,
And long where thou art lying,
Will tears the cold turf steep.

When hearts, whose truth was proven,
Like thine, are laid in earth,
There should a wreath be woven,
To tell the world their worth;

And I, who woke each morn'g
To clasp thy hand in mine,
Who shared thy joy and sorrow,
Whose weal and woe were thine;

It should be mine to braid it
Around thy faded brow,
But I've in vain essayed it,
And feel I cannot now.

While memory bids me weep thee,
Nor thoughts nor words are free,
The grief is fixed too deeply
That mourns a man like thee."

In our estimation, his "Albion Castle," is one of the most finished and beautiful poems in the language; it is but little superior, however, to his "Marco Bozzaris," which will live while time lasts,—the passage commencing

"Come to the bridal chamber, Death!
Come to the Mother's, when she feels,
For the first time, her first-born's breath," is the very embodiment of all that is lofty, pathetic and sublime in poetry. His eulogium on the Grecian warrior, beginning thus.

"Bozzaris! with the storied brave
Greece nurtured in her glory's time,
Rest thee—there is no prouder grave,
Even in her own proud clime," &c.

is enough almost to make any man in love with death, if Halleck was to pronounce his last poetic tribute.

This gem has been translated into the Greek language, and has been sung, for years, by the beautiful maidens of that classic land, as the last rays of the sun sheds a halo

"O'er blighted, lost, degraded Greece!"

His "Burns," "Red Jacket," "Wyoming," and "The Field of Grounded Arms," are worthy the genius of any poet, in any age or land. "Fanny" is the longest poem from his pen, and is a satire on certain prominent characters in New York, at the time it was written, in 1819. It was first published anonymously, and has never been acknowledged by Halleck, as his production, until the present time.

He has generally been engaged in commercial pursuits, and was once in

as he significantly expressed it in a poem.

But for several years past he has been the principal superintendent of the affairs of John Jacob Astor. He is a bachelor, and is as popular among his friends for his social qualities, as he is with the world as a poet. His poems are worthy of frequent perusal; sometimes in the midst of a strain of harmonious diction, and soft and tender imagery, he surprises by an irresistible stroke of ridicule, as if he took pleasure in showing the reader that the poetical vision he had raised was but a cheat. He delights in ludicrous contrasts, produced by bringing the nobleness of the ideal world into comparison with the homeliness of the actual; the beauty and grace of nature with the awkwardness of art.

GALLANTRY.—Captain Seefield, of the New London Star, is a gallant man among the ladies, at times, and no mistake, as the following anecdote will prove.

The Captain was in attendance at the Washington Ball, given at the City Hotel, New London, in February last, although he is not a dancer. Among the ladies present, he espied out one who "filled his eye," and whom he sought and obtained an introduction to. After chatting for a few moments, the Captain, highly delighted with her appearance, supper was announced; and he, of course, in the most graceful manner possible, begged that she would "condescend to descend so far from her native dignity, as to permit her most humble and devoted slave to enjoy the supreme felicity of escorting her ladyship to the festive board." She took his arm, and a moment brought them to a table, creaking under its load of "the good things of this life," and arranged most magnificently. Here the Captain was unremiss in his attentions, helping her first to this and then to that, and among other things he thought a glass of ice cream would be relished, and seeing a dish on the table having the appearance of ice cream, arranged in a very tasty form, he procured an extra-large quantity of it and presented it to her, but she declined taking it. He enquired of her if she was not fond of ice cream? Very fond, she replied, but still refused to accept of it from his hand.—The Captain was completely struck a-back by this strange conduct on the part of the lady; what to make of it he did not know; and he was the more surprised when he considered that but a few days had elapsed since he received the intelligence of that vast fortune which had been left him by a deceased uncle in Scotland. Such "bluff talk" the Captain did not like; his brow heightened with indignation, and intense excitement pervaded his mind. There he stood, with the dish in his hand, trembling like an aspen leaf, not knowing what to do. An idea struck him, and a change was perceptible in his countenance;—he resolved to eat it himself, right before her, and all at one mouthful, if possible, and he accordingly crammed in as much as his face would conveniently hold, and it came out, it is said, a great deal quicker than it went in, for it did not take him very long, notwithstanding his intense excitement, to discover that his ice cream was nothing but butter, and it was for this reason that the lady declined taking it.

P. S. The Captain used to belong to a temperance society.

GEN. QUITMAN.—The Natchez papers give glowing accounts of the reception of Major Gen. Quitman on Monday last by the citizens of that place. Two Mexican guns, presented to the General by Commodore Perry, as trophies, were employed on the occasion in firing salutes. A long procession was formed, congratulatory addresses were made, and then all parties partook of a sumptuous collation.—N. O. Picayune.

Thirtieth Congress.—First Session.

SENATE.—Monday.—The naval and military committees were ordered to be enlarged.—The former officers of the senate were re-elected, viz: Dickens, clerk; Beal, sergeant at arms; Holland, door keeper; Slicer, chaplain.

Chairman of the committee on public lands, Breese; Douglas, territories; Yulee, private land claims; Atchison, Indian affairs; Bright, revolutionary claims Johnson, pensions; Wescott, patents; Savier, foreign relations; Atherton, finance; Dix, commerce; Dickinson, manufactures; Sturgeon, agriculture; Cass, military affairs; Ashley, judiciary; Niles, post office; Hannegan, roads and canals.

HOUSE.—Monday.—The following chairmen of committees are given:—Vinton, way and means; J. R. Ingersoll, judiciary; Andrew Stewart, manufactures; Truman Smith, foreign affairs; Botts, military affairs.

Mr. Rockwell, of Connecticut, delivered an eloquent and feeling eulogy on the character of his late colleague, Mr. Huntington, recently deceased.

Stewart's portrait of Commodore Decatur, has been presented to the city of Philadelphia by the widow of the Naval hero.

FRESHET ON THE HUDSON.—The Albany Argus states that recent rains at the North and West have overflowed the banks of the river. The basements of the stores on the dock were under water on Sunday, and many of the dwellings in the south part of the city, bordering on the river, were flooded to such a depth, as at this season of the year to affect the health of the inhabitants injuriously. The change in the weather on Saturday would check any further rise, unless the rainy weather should continue.

Over fifty vessels have been launched in Thomaston the present season, according to the Gazette.

Some of the citizens of the district of Columbia mean to petition Congress for a territorial government.

POOR ECONOMY.—For a man, worth twenty thousand dollars, to forbid his son taking a newspaper on account of the expense.

We were without a mail from New York yesterday, on account of a dense fog which has prevailed for a day or two past.

Boston, Dec. 10th, 1846.
This may certify that I have used Poof's Lotion, (as prepared by Messrs. Ames and Olds) for Scalds, Burns, Bruises, &c.; and am happy to say that I believe it is all it purports to be.

[Extract of a letter from Dr. Williams of Vt.]
Gentlemen—I will thank you to send me two dozen more of your Sarsaparilla and Tomato Bitters. I have used it with great success in four cases of dyspepsia, curing each of them in an almost incredible short time; likewise one case of scrofulous humor and one of jaundice. I consider it a valuable compound, and must say I have used it with the happiest effects. Should like to have it as soon as convenient. One of the cases of dyspepsia was a gentleman who had suffered a long time, and had been to the Springs for two seasons.

A. Boyden, Esq. of Cambridge, cured of the dyspepsia of a year standing, after trying a hundred remedies without the least effect.

For sale by R. J. TAYLOR.

Sore throats, cough, consumption, pains in various parts of the body, and other unpleasant symptoms, are the usual effect of catching cold. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a delightful medicine for carrying off a cold, because they purge from the body all morbid and corrupt humors in so easy and natural a manner, that the body is relieved of all suffering as if by magic. From three to six of said Indian Vegetable Pills, taken every night on going to bed, will, in a short time, make a perfect cure of the most obstinate cold—at the same time the blood and other fluids will be thoroughly purified, and the constitution so completely invigorated, that the body will be restored to sounder health than before.

Beware of cheap coated counterfeits.—Remember that the original and only genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the written signature of William Wright on the top label of each box.

The genuine are for sale by C. G. C. HAZARD, No. 89 Thames-st., Sole Agent for Newport; and by Nathan Dennis, Portsmouth; Seabury & Albany, Tiverton Bridge; Arnold Smith, Tiverton Four Corners; H. F. Brown, Little Compton; W. A. Brown, Adamsville. Wholesale at the New England Office, 193, Tremont-st., Boston.

Sand's Sarsaparilla.—This following interesting case is presented, and the reader invited to its careful perusal. Comment on such evidence is unnecessary.

East Poultney, Vt., Aug. 10, 1846.
Messrs. Sands: In the spring of 41 I had the typhus fever, with which I suffered the most intense pain, and when I recovered from that, I was attacked with a spinal complaint and inflamed sore throat. This continued till June, '43, when my throat and lungs ulcerated, attended with a severe cough, and my face was covered with scrofulous sores. I cannot describe what I suffered for five years, three of which I was confined to my bed. During this time I received no benefits from the prescriptions of the various physicians, and had nearly given up all hopes of ever being any better. At this time I was induced to try your Sarsaparilla, from the many remarkable cures it had performed, and strange as it may appear, the first bottle effected a sensible change. By continuing its use my health has so much improved that I can now not only sit up, but walk; and I fully believe, with the blessing of Providence, that it will effect a perfect cure. Yours, very truly,

ADELINE STANLEY.

The Good Things of the Season, Parties, Holiday Presents, &c.

WINTER evenings and YOUNG'S Variety Store form pleasant associations for the inhabitants of Newport. There is nothing so desirable that can contribute to the comfort of all, that cannot be obtained at this store, and all as low and a great many much less than can be bought elsewhere in Newport. For example, we will attach the following prices, and every article is warranted.
Western Apples from $1.75 to $2.12 per bushel; shell-barks $2.00 per bushel; peanuts $1.62 per bushel; chestnuts from four to five dollars per bushel; almonds, one shilling per pound; new raisins, figs, dates and currants 12 1/2 cts per pound; we sell these last named articles at wholesale prices. Prunes 20 cts per pound; grapes 25 cts; new citron 28 cts; preserved ginger $1.12 per jar, or 30 cts per pound, in small quantities; candies and all kinds of confectionery cheaper than they have ever been sold at any other store in town, at wholesale and retail, always fresh and of the finest quality; for the truth of this we wish every one to come and judge for themselves.

Miracle.
ON the 4th of August, in the year 1843, a singular scene occurred in the Royal Scientific Institution of France. The aged, white-headed President, his head bare, his arms outstretched, his face radiant with smiles, (for science was triumphant,) and his voice with grandulatory tone, delivered the following report:
"We are astounded at this singular preparation. Where, indeed, will science stop? Here we have a preparation made in the form of a beautiful piece of soap, which we know by actual practice, to cure every cutaneous eruption, every disfigurement of, and even discolored skin! Where will its magic and singular power cease? The Negro, the Crole, the Yellow Race of the East, and the Red Man of the far West, are alike under the influence of its extraordinary powers of clearing yellow or discolored skin, and making it white and beautiful, and of changing the color of dark, or black, or brown skin." (Here several persons were brought forward by the President, who had used it, in proof of his assertion.)
There are probably few persons of intelligence, who, after reading the above, will doubt the qualities of JONES' ITALIAN CHEMICAL SOAP, in curing Pimples, Blisters, Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Crystals, Sores, Heads, Old Sores, Brail, and Barber's Itch, Chapped and Tender Flesh, Freckles, Tan, Sunburn, and changing dark sunburn or yellow skin to a pure, clear white, as smooth and soft as an infant's, and in fact every kind of eruption and disfigurement. Read these certificates:
[From the N. O. Sentinel, Oct. 1844.]
One of our subscribers, Mr. H. Leonard, informs us that he has been cured of old, scaly Salt Rheum, of eighteen years standing, on his head, fingers and hands, by a cake of an article much advertised lately—we speak of Jones' Italian Chemical Soap. He also informs us that he has tried its effects on his female slave Rose, much marked with sun spots, and he found in two weeks her skin much clearer and whiter.
James Eltham, a painter in Jersey City, was cured of carbuncles and pimples, which he was afflicted with for many years, by part of a cake of Jones' Italian Chemical Soap.
Persons in purchasing this must always ask for Jones' Italian Chemical Soap; and perhaps, as many who have been cheated with counterfeits, will be too much discouraged to try the genuine, we say to such, try this once—you will not regret it, but always see that the name of T. JONES is on the wrapper. For sale in Newport by

Thames-street, No. 157. SHOES, BOOTS AND GAITERS.

A very Extensive Supply.
IN offering this stock of goods to the inhabitants of Newport and vicinity, I am aware that the satisfaction of making a good bargain is incomplete—it is not realized when the purchaser does not know that he is receiving for his money the very best return. To give, in this case full assurance, I will say, that whilst the above goods are too valuable to allow of being purchased at lower prices than other goods in market, I will notwithstanding, sell them at such prices as cannot fail to secure a continuance of that custom which I already have so largely and so liberally received.

Falton's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

A REMEDY for all diseases of the Hair, and is restorative in all cases where baldness is not beyond the reach of art.

Naught with beauty can compare, With soft, glossy locks of hair; If not endowed with such by nature, Use Falton's Hair Invigorator.

The subscriber having devoted a considerable portion of his time, or twenty years to the study of the skin, and the human hair, also the best means of treating and curing the same, and having, in the course of his experiments made various changes and improvements in the different articles approved as the best for such purposes, has at length, after laborious research and deep investigation, succeeded in bringing to perfection a composition, the virtues of which he challenges the world to excel.

The Chemical Hair Invigorator is composed of a number of vegetable ingredients of opposite qualities, and approved by the highest medical standard, the secret of blending and combining, which is known only to the subscriber, who has spared neither pains nor expense in bringing it before the public.

The Invigorator is an article in which a cleansing and purifying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy moisture of the hair never before attained, yet free from animal grease or essential oils. It cleanses the pores of the skin, causes a healthy action of the blood vessels, nerves, &c., which free the hair, thereby preventing baldness and gray hair, entirely frees the skin from scurf, dandruff, and other cutaneous diseases; dispenses the hair to curl, and keeps it so—will positively change the hardest hair into the most soft and healthy and glossy state, also imparts to it a darker color, and a free use of it will keep both the skin and hair in a healthy and luxuriant state until the last period of life.

Ladies will find the Invigorator a great addition to the toilet, both on account of its delicate and agreeable perfume, and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which when moistened with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form, so as to preserve its place whether plain or in curls. When used on children's heads it lays the foundation of a good head of hair.

Invented and prepared by EDWARD PHALTON, professor of Wig Making and Hair Cutting, 61 Broadway, New York.

The Great and only Successful Remedy for the cure of Consumption,

Dr. W. V. Vandersmith's INDIAN COUGH BALM and LUNG BALM.

Disorder of the Lungs and Throat cured.

White Plains, April 20, 1847.

This is to certify that I have been afflicted for five years with a cough, pain in the chest, night sweats, difficulty in breathing, etc., and I also expectorated a large quantity of frothy matter and blood, from which I was reduced to a perfect skeleton, my throat was very much ulcerated. I had lunar cautery applied to my throat twice a week, but received no benefit; I have used one hundred different kinds of Patent Medicines, recommended by my friends, but all to no purpose. A friend of mine, Mr. Willett, whose lungs had been affected for two years past, was cured by Dr. Vandersmith's Medicine. He insisted upon my trying Dr. V. and I did so. After I had used his medicine 15 days, I expectorated large quantities of yellow frothy matter, my chest expanded, and my difficulty in breathing subsided. I persevered with his medicine and the result has been, I am perfectly cured of all my sickness. I recommend every consumptive to try Dr. V.'s medicine, I am confident it will cure you. Your sincere friend, EDWARD C. THOMPSON.

Sworn before me this 21st day of April, 1847.

Inflammation of the Lungs.

New York, June 10, 1847.

Dr. Vandersmith—I have been subject to a cough, pain in the chest, difficulty of breathing, &c., for many years past. About four months ago I took a severe cold, which settled on my lungs. I was unable to attend to my business during the day. I would have dreadful coughing spells, that I thought it was impossible for me to survive unless I could get relief. The excessive night sweats, had reduced my whole body to a skeleton. I expectorated white frothy mucus, in fact, should I give the full particulars of my case, it would be almost incredible. I was recommended to try Dr. Vandersmith's Indian Cough Balm and Lung Balm. I consented; when I used it about one week, my cough decreased considerably, which gave me great hopes. I continued with the medicine according to directions, and the result has been that I am restored to health, a blessing that I have not enjoyed for years, until the present. I sincerely believe had I not made use of Dr. Vandersmith's invaluable medicine, that I would be mouldering in the silent grave. Therefore I believe that I am doing nothing but what is justice, in stating the above facts, so that you may show it to all the afflicted who may call upon you to administer to them. I shall be pleased at any time to converse with the afflicted who call upon me. Your grateful patient and friend, JAMES B. HENDERSON.

No. 703 Washington Street.

Consumption.

Staten Island, June 10, 1847.

Dear Sir—I take great pleasure in giving you my certificate, last December I was attacked with a severe cough, pain in my left side, loss of appetite, and continual raising of white and yellow mucus. Some days I raised a half-pint of mucus, streaked with blood. I have been under the treatment of a dozen physicians, I was recommended by Dr. Mitchell of Philadelphia, to use a Breathing tub, I purchased one, I only made use of it one week, it was the cause of bringing on a hemorrhage of the lungs, which reduced me so much that I was unable to sit up, my voice was entirely destroyed, it was difficult for persons to understand me. I saw Dr. Vandersmith's Medicine recommended very strongly by a patient whom he had cured. I sent for half a dozen bottles, I received great benefit from that, which induced me to purchase a dozen bottles, I took according to the directions, and it cured me perfectly sound.

Yours, &c. ROBERT WILLEY.

Hyers's Pills.

The American Improved Hygienic Vegetable Medicine.

SAFE, CHEAP AND EFFECTIVE.

This medicine makes no pretensions to miraculous powers, the raising of the dead, or to immense and astounding cures of the times; but bases all its claims upon plain common sense principles, as a simple aid to nature in restoring the human system to its proper tone and action, when by carelessness or unavoidable circumstances it has become deranged or debilitated, and asks simply a faithful trial as a test of its curative properties.

During the last twenty years it has worked its way into extensive use, wholly upon its own merits, by commendation from individual to individual, not having been advertised for more than twelve years till within the past few months—save occasionally in a journal of which the present proprietor is Editor. The increasing demand, however, has measurably compelled greater attention to its business, and agencies are now being established throughout the country.

A faithful trial of a half dollar or dollar package is almost certain to secure use in every family where it is introduced, where medicine is needed. The undersigned has used it in his own family for more than fifteen years—has knowledge of its approved use in many others, (for periods varying from months to fifteen or sixteen years,) as their only medicine, and knows it to be valuable in most of the complaints incident to the human system. But a long or extravagant commendation is not designed or needed here. Ten thousand were assertions in its favor will not make it valuable, or satisfy reasonable persons without a trial; for the proof, after all, must lie in the use of it. Try it, then. Read, try, and then judge.

GENUINE BEAR'S OIL Highly Perfumed.—Perhaps our ladies and fashionable are not aware that three-quarters of the "Bear's Oil" (so called) with which they anoint their locks, wondering that it does them so little good, is nothing in the world but hog's lard, so highly scented as to escape detection, save on close examination. This, however, is simply the fact, and one that ought to be known. The only safe way is to purchase your Bear's Oil of HENRY JOHNSON, who gets it direct from Canada and the North Western Territory, and who never sells an ounce until he knows it to be genuine. The real Bear's Oil is a wonderful beautifier and strengthener of the hair, and should be used by every one desirous of beautiful locks.

Coggeshall & Bliss' Patent Cooking Range.

THE subscriber has just taken out letters patent for a new and beautiful cooking Range, to which they invite the attention of the public.

This Range may be set in the ordinary fire place, and by a simple, though effectual apparatus, the throat of the chimney may in an instant of time, be opened or closed, so that the heat in summer and the fumes from cooking at all times may escape through the chimney.

Wood or coal may be used, and the evil of smoking chimneys is completely remedied by its introduction.

This Range is so constructed that it takes up but a small space, and yet it contains all the qualities of those which take up double the amount; and it being constructed as it is, the Boilers are brought in close proximity with the fire, and it consequently boils much sooner, and with a smaller amount of fuel, than the old fashioned Ranges, or cook stoves. It contains five boilers, four of which may be converted into two, by taking out a cross piece, and thus will admit of two large boilers at the same time. It also contains and Oven 12 inches wide by 21 deep, which cannot be surpassed for baking.

The subscriber has one of these Ranges in operation at his store, where the public are invited to call and examine it, and if they will, they must at once discover its utility. He also keeps constantly on hand all kinds of Parlor, Office, and Cook Stoves, Tin Ware, &c., &c. WM. H. BLISS. Feb 9th.
